Itinéraire

DAY 1 : DEPARTURE FLIGHT TO KATHMANDU

Departure flight to Kathmandu.

DAY 2 : ARRIVAL IN KATHMANDU

Arrival in Kathmandu. Transfer to the hotel. Free afternoon: you can visit the Swayambhu stupa (Monkey Temple), wander through the streets of Thamel, or have your first Dal bhat dinner (the most traditional dish of Nepali cuisine).

Accommodation: 3-star hotel

DAY 3 : FROM BOUDHANATH TO CHISPANI

Pickup from the hotel early in the morning and transfer of the entire group to the great Boudhanath Stupa. It is one of the most sacred places in Buddhism and also highly revered by Hindus. It is the largest circular stupa in Eurasia and is filled with Buddhist schools and Tibetan refugees. Pilgrims are required to make 3 circumambulations around the stupa praying; we will do the same to bring luck for the journey ahead. A bus will take us to Sundarijal (on the outskirts of Kathmandu) where our trek begins. But if anyone feels like jogging, we can run directly from Boudhanath to Sundarijal (we only need to add 8 km to today's route). Immediately we enter the forest and begin the almost 10 km trek to the small village of Chisapani at 2,170 m.

Trek 1: Sundarijal to Chisapani (2170 m) (9.7 km, +1081 m -289 m; 4 h) (Optional extension: start from Boudhanath +8 km)

Accommodation: Tea house

Meals: breakfast + dinner + lunch

DAY 4 : FROM CHISAPANI TO KUTUMSANG

We continue our route through the Helambu area, moving further away from Kathmandu and gradually ascending to achieve good acclimatization. Today will be the longest day of the entire trek, covering 16 km at a steady pace, including a good break for lunch in one of the small villages we will cross before arriving at Kutumsang (2,456 m).

Trek 2 From Chisapani to Kutumsang (2,456 m) (16.0 km, +1,280 m -987 m; 7 h).

Accommodation: Tea house

Meals: dinner + breakfast + lunch

DAY 5 : FROM KUTUMSANG TO MANGENGOOTH

Today awaits a much calmer day of less than 7 km to properly recover from the effort of the previous day until reaching a small lodge located in Mangengoth at 3,390 m. For those wanting more, in the afternoon we will ascend a nearby peak of 3,470 m, from where several peaks of almost 7,000 m can already be seen. The rest of the group will enjoy a yoga session during the sunset.

Trek 3 Kutumsang to Mangengoth (3,390 m) (6.6 km, +916 m -149 m; 4 h) (Optional extension: summit at 3,470 m).

Accommodation: Tea house

Meals: breakfast + dinner + lunch

DAY 6 : FROM MANGENGOOTH TO THADEPATI

We leave Mangengoth and head to Thadepati at 3,690 m. Today we will also do a calm and easy 6 km route with little elevation change. In the afternoon, the whole group will climb a 3,840 m mountain behind our lodge to help with acclimatization. If anyone feels up to it, we can continue to another mountain at 4,490 m and together decide whether to watch the sunset from the summit or from our lodge.

Trek 4 Mangengoth to Thadepati (3,690 m) (6.1 km, +496 m -611 m; 3 h) (Optional extension: summit at 3,840 m or 4,490 m).

Accommodation: Tea house

Meals: dinner + breakfast + lunch

DAY 7 : FROM THADEPATI TO PHEDI

We have left behind the Helambu region and entered the Himalayas. Today we will reach the last inhabited place on this side of the Gosainkunda Pass. In less than 5 hours, we must reach Phedi at 3,630 m. Today is not a day to run, but to rest and gather strength for tomorrow when we will face the highest point of the entire route.

Trek 5 From Thadepati to Phedi (3,630 m) (8.0 km, +712 m -594 m; 5 h).

Accommodation: Tea house

Meals: dinner + breakfast + lunch

DAY 8 : FROM PHEDI TO GOSAIKUND

Today we will all cross the Lauribina Pass (4,610 m), the highest point of the route. Afterward, a short descent will take us to the sacred lakes of Gosaikunda. If anyone feels like it, from the pass we can climb the nearest peak (5,040 m) or Surya Peak (5,145 m). At Gosaikunda, the god Shiva is worshipped, and pilgrims from around the world come to take a ritual bath in its icy waters to purify themselves. We only have to enter the water and run back to our lodge (or watch how others do it).

Trek 6 From Phedi to Gosaikunda (4,419 m) (6.5 km, +915 m - 262 m; 5 h) (Optional extension: summit 5,070 m).

Accommodation: Tea house

Meals: dinner + breakfast + lunch

DAY 9 : FROM GOSAIKUND TO CHANDANBARI

We start a path that practically descends all the way down to the bottom of the Langtang valley. Today's route will take us along a comfortable ridge with stunning views of Langtang Lirung (7,200 m) until we reach Chandambari. In about 4 hours or less, we can reach this town and visit the Shing Gomba Buddhist monastery (3,330 m).

Trek 7 From Gosaikund to Chandanbari (9.0 km, +70 -1,176 m; 4 h).

Accommodation: Tea house

Meals: dinner + breakfast + lunch

DAY 10 : FROM CHANDANBARI TO DUNCHE

Last day of trekking. Today involves a long descent to the bottom of the valley to reach Dunche. Be alert for the forests in this area, which are full of wild monkeys. We have now arrived at the last town before the border with Tibet and the end of our route.

Trek 8 From Chandanbari to Dunche (1,950m) (11.6 km +100m – 1,750m; 5h).

Accommodation: Tea house

Meals: dinner + breakfast + lunch

DAY 11 : FROM DUNCHE TO KATHMANDU

A bus will pick us up early in the morning and we will begin the return to Kathmandu, arriving in 5 to 6 hours. In the afternoon, we can take the opportunity to visit Thamel or simply enjoy our last dinner in Nepal.

Accommodation: Tea house

Meals: breakfast + lunch

DAY 12 : RETURN FLIGHT

We can take advantage of the early morning to do last-minute shopping. Afterwards, we will be picked up at the hotel to take us to the airport. Flight back home.

Meals: breakfast.

FAQs

What physical and technical level is required?

You need a minimum level that allows you to do a mountain route of 1200m of elevation gain in one day. It is not a demanding route, and short hikes are interspersed throughout the day to ensure proper acclimatization and recovery from the trekking sessions. During the route, we can carry a small backpack with the things we will use during the day. Porters will transport our backpacks to the next lodge. For those who are always looking for more, we have several extensions available during the afternoons to ascend peaks near our lodges, ranging from 3,600 to 5,100 meters.

How to organize the bag with the equipment that the porter will carry?

The porter carries the gear for two people (maximum 12kg per person). You should share one bag between each person and give it to the porter. Ideally, a duffel bag of approximately 80L will fit. The other bag will stay at your hotel in Kathmandu.

Backpack during the route:

Bring a small backpack that can hold a jacket, a water bottle, and some snack bars or nuts. The porters will carry all the gear you don't need during the day.

Crampons

Snow or ice may be present in the higher elevations of the trek, although this is rare. Conditions can change rapidly, especially on passes over 5,000 meters. Some people wear chain crampons to improve grip on slippery surfaces; spiked crampons are not necessary for trekking.

Cash

In Kathmandu, you can usually pay by card (in restaurants, taxis, souvenir shops, etc., but not everywhere). After that, there will be no ATMs. It is essential to carry local currency. You can bring euros or dollars and exchange them directly for rupees at the airport or in Thamel on the day of arrival.

Recommended cash amount:

It is recommended to bring a minimum of €250 in cash for non-included expenses, such as drinks or meals in Kathmandu, and tips.

Tips:

Tips are usually given at the end of the trip (not mandatory, but highly recommended), in cash (they don't have a credit card machine). Guides: $5-$10 per person per day. On longer treks (such as the Annapurna Circuit or Everest Base Camp), tips can increase, reaching $10-$15 per person per day. Porters: $3-$5 per day per person. On longer or more demanding treks, you might consider increasing this to $5-$7.

Hygiene conditions in the lodges:

As you gain altitude, accommodations become much more basic. It's recommended to bring wet wipes and a sleeping bag to avoid using blankets.

Showers and hot water:

At higher altitudes, hot showers are very rare. It's VERY easy to catch a cold, which increases the risk of altitude sickness. We recommend avoiding showers. Wet wipes are a good alternative for maintaining hygiene.

Where will we stay?

The first and last nights will be spent at the International Guest House in Kathmandu. The remaining nights will be spent in various lodges along the way. The program offers shared accommodation. If you prefer a single room, please specify this when booking.

Medications for the altitude:

The routes are gradual to avoid altitude sickness (as much as possible). The guides carry a complete first-aid kit, including an oxygen saturation monitor. For medications such as Edemox or similar, consult your doctor, although they are not necessary.

Mobile Phone and SIM card:

You can buy a SIM card upon arrival. Each region of Nepal has a different operator. Ask our team which one works in each area. A €15-€20 top-up will give you enough data to use WhatsApp when there's coverage. Regular calls are much more expensive.

Is it necessary to take any type of supplement or recovery supplement?

Supplements can be helpful, but they're not essential. It's a good idea to take iron in the days before starting an activity at altitude. You can consult your doctor or nutritionist about this.

Water purification tablets

Always buy bottled water or boiled water at the lodges.

Mosquito Repellent:

Repellent may be useful the first few days, but in high altitudes it is not necessary.

Vaccination card:

There are no mandatory vaccinations to travel to Nepal.

Plug adapters:

They are the same ones that exist in Europe.

What are the passport and visa requirements?

It is important to have a valid passport with at least 6 months validity. Nepal offers visas on arrival for most countries. You can speed up the process and avoid queues upon landing by applying online via this official website. Upon arrival, go to the bank counter at Tribhuwan International Airport with the submission ID (confirmation page) you received when you completed the Nepal visa application form. Pay the corresponding fee in cash and, after making the payment, go to the immigration officer's counter with your original passport to process the visa. In the case of a visa, stay up to date, as immigration policies change often. That is why it is advisable to check the information closer to your planned travel date. Currently, as of February 2025, the costs for a Nepal tourist visa are as follows: 15 days: USD 30 30 days: USD 50 90 days: USD 125.
